HCC wins patent suit for Dig-it knockout

ALEXANDRIA, Va. — Spancrete Machinery Corp. of Milwaukee, Wis., has been awarded an undisclosed sum in financial damages from RH&M Machinery Corp. of Milwaukee, Wis., for the infringement of U.S. Patent No. 4,925,358, covering a towable backhoe marketed under the trade name, Dig II. The ruling, issued by the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, also orders RH&M to discontinue sale of the infringing backhoe which it had designated as the Gopher Digger II.

The jury's infringement verdict had been reached in December of 1992 but had been stalled when the trial court overturned the verdict on technical grounds. The original verdict of infringement has since been reinstated by the court of appeals for the Federal Court. Dig-it products are currently marketed and manufactured by HCC, Inc. of Mendota, Ill.

American Cyanamid, Rohm & Haas join forces on insecticide

American Cyanamid Co. and Rohm and Haas Co. have announced the formation of RohMid L.L.C., a marketing and sales joint venture to develop, register and commercialize a new insecticide, RH-0345, for the U.S. turf and ornamental market. According to Janet Grieselmaier, Turf and Ornamental products manager for Rohm and Haas, and Tom Perkins, Ph.D., business manager, Turf, Ornamental and Pest Control Products at American Cyanamid, both firms have expertise in developing molting accelerator compounds (MACs) for the 2.2 million acre U.S. turf market. The formation of RohMid allows the companies to share the costs of developing a new insecticide and to expedite the development of data needed to register the product with regulatory authorities.

RohMid hopes that the Environmental Protection Agency will grant a
