Virti-drain suit

Continued from page 39 were going to sue.

"There was no patent infringement here. We researched it very carefully. This is strictly a sales play by Redexim," according to Estates, Southern Green, ended its relationship with Redexim in 1994, he said.

The Verti-Drain product line is represented in North America by Emrex, Inc., an independent importer, and a national network of more than 30 distributors. According to Charles Otto, president of Emrex, Redexim caught wind of the Soil Reliever's emergence and sent Southern Green a cease and desist order in October 1994, on the basis that it was a copy. "Instead of responding to the cease and desist, they filed a suit," said Otto. "Instead of responding, they filed a suit which said, basically, that 'Redexim is going to sue."

According to Otto, in May of 1995, Redexim tried to have the Southern Green suit dismissed. However, a dismissal judgment, according to Charles Otto, president of Redexim, on the basis that it was a copy.
