Marketing coups increase Ransomes’ visibility

• Firm partners with GCSAA at Golf Asia

BY HAL PHILLIPS

SINGAPORE — The Golf Course Superintendents Association of America (GCSCA) has taken its corporate sponsor strategy abroad.

GCSCA, which has aggressively pursued corporate sponsorships in connection with its domestic trade show and conference, has signed a three-year agreement with Ransomes. Cushman Ryan to stage the Golf Asia ‘96 turfgrass seminar programs at the Golf Asia ‘96 International Golf Exhibition and Conferences, scheduled to take place here March 25-31.

Golf Course News Asia-Pacific, the official publication of Golf Course News, is the official trade publication of Golf Asia ’96. The conference program features development and design content, in addition to course maintenance seminars administered by GCSCA. Ransomes, a consistent exhibitor at the Golf Asia since its inception, will assist the association in formulation of the program.

Vigor absorbed by IMC Global

CHICAGO — IMC Global Inc. (NYSE:IGL) and The Vigoro Corp. (NYSE:VGR) have signed a definitive agreement for a merger which will create a leading supplier of crop nutrients serving the global agriculture industry and having complementary retail distribution capabilities.

The new company will retain the IMC Global name and be headquarters in the Chicago area. Under terms of the agreement, each Vigoro shareholder will receive 0.8 shares of IMC stock, assuming IMC’s stock price remains between $61.875 and $80.00. The 0.8 ratio is subject to proportional adjustment down to 0.75 so that the maximum exchange value for Vigoro stock will remain at $84.00 if IMC stock trades between $80.00 and $85.333. Similarly, the ratio will adjust proportionately up to 0.85 so that the minimum exchange value for Vigoro stock will remain at $49.50 if IMC stock trades between $85.333 and $91.667. The exchange ratios and per share amounts will be adjusted to reflect IMC’s previously announced 2-for-1 stock split.

The transaction, which will be a tax-free exchange and be accounted for as a pooling-of-interests, has been approved by the boards of directors of both companies, is subject to approval by the shareholders of both companies and necessary regulatory approvals. The merger is expected to be completed early this year.

Changes in Environmental Steward format

ORLANDO — Together with the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America (GCSCA), the four sponsors of the Environmental Steward Award have announced format changes for the 1995-96 program.

Ciba Turf & Ornamental Products, Rain Bird’s Golf Division, Jacobsen Division of Textron Inc. and Lebanon Turf Products will present the award during the Environmental General Session at the GCSCA International Golf Course Conference and Show Feb. 11, 1996 here at the Orange County Convention Center. In addition, according to GCSCA officials, the Environmental General Session now is sponsored by Ciba, Rain Bird, Jacobsen and Lebanon.

“GCSCA’s Environmental Steward Award program provides an outstanding opportunity to recognize our members who have implemented progressive and effective environmental programs," said Gary Grigg, CGCS, president of GCSCA.

“By combining this program with Environmental General Session, we will increase the exposure of the award winners not only within our own association, but also on a national basis as well. We would also like to thank the four sponsors for supporting the program and promoting

NEW PRODUCT OF THE MONTH

The Keevyn Co. has introduced a versatile golf bag rack. According to Keevyn’s Richard Thompson, the Keevyn rack is a practical solution to golf bag storage. Said Thompson: "Not only does the rack handle both pro and standard bags, but it can also be used to control pedestrian and golf cart traffic." These lightweight racks are maintenance-free and available in custom colors or a galvanized finish. They’re stable on both turf and hard surfaces and are available in free standing or wall-mounted versions. The 6-foot rack holds 14 bags and a 8-foot rack can handle eight. Pebble Beach signs exclusive turf deal

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. — The Pebble Beach Company has selected Ransomes as its exclusive supplier of turf maintenance equipment. The three-year rolling agreement with the Pebble Beach states that all new equipment for its golf courses and ground maintenance will come from the Ransomes Cushman Ryan product lines.

Pebble Beach considered the leading turf maintenance companies before arriving at their decision, said Ted Horton, vice president of resource management for Pebble Beach. “Ransomes regained our attention early this year when after the torrential rain we had experienced in California, their fairway mowers enabled us to get our course into tournament condition prior to the AT&T Pebble Beach National Pro-Am,” said Horton. “During our consideration of potential suppliers, we were impressed not only by their total range of equipment, but also by the commitment of their management to support...

"This is a very exciting opportunity for us," said Paul Pesci, vice president of sales and marketing for Ransomes Cushman Ryan. "Not only do we take a lead in golf course turf maintenance equipment, we also actively research and lead the industry in environmental, safety and quality issues. Like GCSSA, we believe that education has to be at the heart of these issues and of our industry, particularly in developing areas.

"GCSAA's education program at Golf Asia enhances the knowledge and technical ability of course personnel in the Pacific Rim area and we are proud to be involved."

The Golf Asia venture, begun in 1991, is organized by the International Management Group (IMG) and Golf Asia Exhibitions, a division of Singapore-based Connex Private Ltd. GCSSA's new partnership with Ransomes is the latest shift in the association's role at Golf Asia.

In March 1993, one week before Golf Asia '93, GCSSA launched its own trade show in direct competition with the Connex-sponsored exhibition. Later that year, GCSSA folded its show and merged its interests with Connex and IMG. Following Golf Asia '95, under pressure from U.S. members uneasy with the association's overseas ventures, GCSSA opted out of its booth sales role at Golf Asia altogether.

Citing its mission to educate, the association agreed to continue its participation in Golf Asia by conducting the turfgrass portion of the conference — a role it now shares with Ransomes Cushman Ryan.

Prior to joining Golf Ventures, he was the golf course superintendent at TPC of Tampa Bay. Prior to that, he was the superintendent at Colleton River Plantation in Hilton Head, S.C.

The New Lightweight Champion

Introducing the Ransomes® 250 Fairway Mower

No lightweight contender stands a chance against the 250's winning combination of features. All you have to do is demo the 250 to appreciate its drive to outperform, outpower, outspend and outmaneuver any mower in its weight class.

Floating cutting heads closely hug the turf and rugged hydrostatic drive grips the terrain for an unsurpassed cut. Even weight distribution eliminates "bouncing" for a smooth, clean finish. The 23-, 28- or 33-horsepower engine muscles the 250 up inlines or around any obstacle, but not at the expense of agility. The 250 is extremely quick on its feet.

Before you put your money behind any other lightweight, give the Ransomes® 250 a workout. It's the only mower to have in your corner for a winning performance on the fairway. Ransomes...the reel thing.
