IN BRIEF

CINCINNATI — The notoriously soggy Reeves Golf Course got a late start this summer after a 9-week shutdown that lasted into late June. An estimated 19,000 fewer rounds had been played as of mid-July compared with 1995, as parts of the popular muni track were underwater most of the spring. Heavy rains and a rising river caused water tables to seep upward.

MARNE, Mich. — There’s nothing like a name change to lend an air of seriousness to a golf course. Once known by the cozy name of Li’l Acres, the nine-hole course in this small town near Grand Rapids is now known as Sand Creek Golf Course & Driving Range. Owner-operator Linda Zahn said she changed the name in keeping with many improvements made at the course recently. Sand Creek now offers a lighted chip and putt practice area. On the 1,965-yard course, new trees were planted and bunkers installed.

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — The newly-opened Stonehouse Golf Club opened for play June 20, was drenched more than a month. Stonehouse, which shut the course down for mid-July. About one-third of the 13th green was washed out, according to Forrest Fezler, director of golf. The 13th green was resodded and rebuilt.

NGF directory hits streets & the web

JUPITER, Fla. — The National Golf Foundation (NGF) has released the first-ever, industry-wide reference guide called the 1997 Directory of Golf. This 500-page publication covers the entire golf industry and lists more than 6,000 golf-related businesses and 10,000 executives. It is also indexed by industry segment for easy reference.

Annual print updates are planned. Monthly updates will be available to those with access to the Internet. NGF has entered into an agreement with GolfWeb the online golf information network, to publish on-line NGF’s 1997 Directory of Golf. The directory can be viewed through GolfWeb at: http://www.golfweb.com

The book may be purchased by calling NGF at 800-733-6006.

Supers stage their own Ryder Cup this month

Hayter Cup matches set for Sept. 16, in Britain

BY TREVOR LEDGER

IVERPOOL, England — Education, camaraderie and keen competition will converge at West Lancashire Golf Club Sept. 16, when the superintendents of “the Americas” take on the greenkeepers of the “Rest of the World” here in a Ryder Cup-style showdown.

The inaugural Hayter International Cup will bring together 24 superintendents from the Americas, Europe and Australasia, and deposit them at the West Lancs GC near Liverpool to slug it out. The format is reminiscent of the now, very high-profile and nerve-searing Ryder Cup. The one-day event will feature six four-ball matches in the morning and twelve singles matches in the afternoon.

For some years now, Hayter Limited has sponsored the Hayter Challenge, a respected annual golf tournament on the U.K. domestic greenkeeping scene. Yet the international challenge is a more recent brainchild of Hayter’s Kim Macfe.

THE ROSTERS

The players participating in the first-ever Hayter International Cup, a Ryder Cup-style team match between superintendents from The Americas (North, Central and South) and the Rest of the World (Britain, Europe, Australasia) to be held Sept. 16, at the West Lancashire Golf Club near Liverpool, England — banded American: Samuel T. Williamson, Jim Duscht, Robert Heron, Douglas Meyer, Ricardo de Udacs, George Renzill, Dean Morrison, Paul McCannis, Alejandro Young, Randy Nichols, Tom Charters, Gary Grigg.

Rest of the World: Cosmo Bergareche, Frederik Goo, Andreas Kauler, Dork Mkindow, Ignacio Soto Alarcon, Peter Schumacher, Peter Fewin, Michael Dobson, Ian Buckley, Matthias Eber, Alexander Reid, Brian Mulholland.
