MOZER JOINS FMAC

LOS ANGELES—FMAC has fired Peter Mozer as executive vice president and chief credit officer. Mozer plans to reorganize the FMAC credit department by integrating the credit, compliance and workout disciplines. Mozer will be responsible for overseeing the credit function for all FMAC product areas including the restaurant, energy, golf, funeral and equipment finance groups.

DUNEDIN SELECTS IGM

LAKELAND, Fla.—International Golf Maintenance (IGM) has been selected by Dunedin Country Club to oversee its golf course maintenance operations. Under the three-year agreement, IGM provides all aspects of golf course maintenance for this Donald Ross-designed, 18-hole layout.

The 6900-yard course has been in operation since 1927. The city of Dunedin took ownership in 1962.

WILSON ADDS MINN. PROPERTY

The Wilson Golf Group, a White Bear Lake, Minn.-based golf course ownership and operations company, has named Greg Stand director of acquisitions. Stand also is the general manager of one of the Wilson Golf Group's golf course properties, Oak Glen, a 27-hole public facility in Stillwater, Minn. The Wilson Golf Group owns and operates six golf facilities including four in Minnesota and two in Colorado. The group is actively seeking to acquire additional golf facilities in the upper Midwest region of the country. For further information, call 612-439-6981.

DPC definitely Major League
Mgt. firm uses pro athletes to market facilities

By PETER BLAIS

ORLANDO, Fla.—Diamond Players Club (DPC), a new golf management company headed by St. Louis Cardinals pitcher Todd Stottlemyre with the assistance of numerous professional athletes, will build a course at the Levitt Corp.'s Skytop Development at Clermont, Fla.

Construction of the course, Diamond Players Club at Orlando, will begin this summer. The facility is expected to open in the fall of 1999. The club will be semiprivate, with about 180 members, and be open to public play.

DPC will own the new Orlando course, which will be designed by golf architect Terill LaGree, modifying an original plan of Lloyd Clifton. LaGree is vice president of Barbaron Inc., which will perform the construction.

The 175-acre course has elevation changes of as much as 200 feet. A practice complex, three-acre putting course and golf academy are also planned. The entire 500-acre Skytop site will also contain an 800-home development.

The project brings together one of the leading names in home building and one of the newest companies in golf management.

Levitt Corp. was founded in 1929 by the late Abraham Levitt.

Diamond Players Club — which also manages Donald Ross-designed Belleview Biltmore Golf Club in Belleair, and has several other construction, lease and management projects under development — was founded in 1997 by Stottlemyre and Greg Gagliardi, twice voted the West Central Florida Chapter PGA Professional of the Year and longtime general manager of Lansbrook Golf Club in Palm Harbor. Stottlemyre is chief executive officer and Gagliardi is chief operating officer.

DPC won the management contract for Belleview Biltmore in mid-1997. Stottlemyre solicited a number of professional athletes who were "easy to get along with, very people-oriented." The players agreed to make themselves available for corporate outings and allow the use of their name for marketing purposes. Among them are Seattle Mariners pitcher Rob Ducey, Tampa Bay Buccaneers running back Mike Alstott, Arizona Diamondbacks pitcher Andy Benes, Boston Red Sox pitcher

Golf property tax assessments: Your firm's plan of action

By LARRY HIRSH

With local governments increasingly squeezed for operating revenues, real-estate owners are asked to bear a larger burden. Golf courses are an easy target. Why not? Only 12 percent of the population play golf and golfers are perceived by non-golfers as "rich people in bright clothes chasing a little white ball."

Larry Hirsh

Moreover, when schools, police and fire protection are at risk, golf courses are politically acceptable targets.

Recently, many jurisdictions' tax reassessments have been particularly hard on golf course properties. For example, Montgomery County Pa. (an area with a number of upscale, daily-fee and private clubs) experienced double-digit reassessment and in Beaufort County, S.C. (the Hilton Head Island resort area) a reassessment resulted in

Meditrust, Cobblestone complete merger

NEEDHAM HEIGHTS, Mass.— The Meditrust Companies announced that it has completed its acquisition of Cobblestone Holdings, Inc., the parent of Cobblestone Golf Group, Inc. and will exchange all of the outstanding preferred and common stock of Cobblestone for Meditrust shares.

Meditrust also assumed and refinanced approximately $154 million of Cobblestone debt. After the previously announced golf course acquisitions are closed, Cobblestone will have a portfolio of 45 facilities with 49 courses in major golf markets and will be one of the leading owners and operators of golf courses in the United States.

Abraham D. Gosman, Chairman of the Board of The Meditrust Companies, stated, "The acquisition of Cobblestone establishes Meditrust as a leader in the growing golf industry. Golf has attracted over 26 million participants in 1997, an increase of 13 percent from 1996. With [Cobblestone President] Bob Husband and his organization, Meditrust gains an excellent management team to speed the rapid consolidation of this sector. We envision Cobblestone at the core of a number of golf-related acquisitions that we have planned in this extremely fragmented industry."

Bob Husband

Husband will continue to serve as president and CEO of Cobblestone, now a subsidiary of The Meditrust Companies. Cobblestone's headquarters will remain in Del Mar, Calif.

"We are very excited about the combination of Meditrust and Cobblestone," Husband said. "Working together, we believe that Meditrust will continue to increase its presence in the golf industry and maintain a dominant position."

In other news, Cobblestone announced John Williams will add responsibilities as regional Director for the company's California facilities. Williams will continue to oversee Cobblestone's operations in Arizona.

United Golf acquires Sarasota, Fla. layout

NEW YORK—United Golf Group, a private golf course owner, has acquired the Serenoa Golf Club, an 18-hole semi-private course in Sarasota, Fla., for $7.1 million. The course, designed by David Alden and completed in 1990, is located in a residential development.

United Golf CEO Mark Mashburn said: "The Serenoa course fits in well with our long-term goal of acquiring a portfolio of quality courses throughout the country. The course is located in the strong Sarasota market and enjoys the support of visitors as well as year-round residents. We plan to continue operating the course as an upscale facility that will be an asset to the area."

United Golf is based in New York. Formed in early 1998, United Golf is actively acquiring public and private courses throughout the country. United Golf's management includes personnel with a combined 50 years of experience with course acquisition and management as well as individuals with extensive experience in the capital markets. United Golf plans to use this platform to make further acquisitions this year. For more information on the company, please contact the company at 212-317-0300.
