SAHalee STAFF BUILDS WEB SITE

SEATLE, Wash. — With the 80th PGA Championship three months away, the Sahalee Country Club maintenance staff has developed a web site on the Internet: www.sahalee.com.

"The entire staff has worked very hard on the web site," said superintendent Tom Wolff. "We know this is going to be a great experience for all of us, hosting a major championship, and it was the feeling of the crew that many people would be interested in the comprehensive information listed on the web site." The site covers history, staff, the 1998 updates on cultural and pest activity, is maintenance staff has developed a web site away, the Sahalee Country Club main-

PEST ACTIVITIES A CALL, OR FAX AWAY

AMHERST, Mass. — The University of Massachusetts Extension's Landscape Message, a toll-free phone message which provides weekly regional updates on cultural and pest activity, is now available in a Faxed version. The Extension reports that subscribers will receive about 20 messages per year, including weekly during the growing season and monthly in the off-season. More information is available by calling 413-545-0985. The phone message can be heard by calling 800-225-4476 (41PM).

HOLLEMBEAK GETS CREDIT

SUGAR GROVE, Ill. — In May's page 1 story on Rich Harvest Links, the reporter neglected to mention that Hollembreek Construction, Inc. of Big Rock built the first 11 holes of Jerry Rich's 18-hole estate course. A member of the Golf Course Builders Association of America, Hollembreek did all the earthwork and shaping, except the irrigation, on those 11 holes. Ryan Inc. Central of Janesville, Wis., built the last seven holes.
