Engelke breaks bentgrass care mold

By MARK LESLIE

PALM BEACH GARDENS, Fla. — With his sights keen on growing the cool-season bentgrass into the Deep South, Dr. Milt Engelke has broken the mold of turfgrass care and developed a regimen he feels will, once and for all, make his dream come true.

He already points to success here. Working with Old Marsh Golf Club superintendent Steve Ehrbar, the Texas A&M professor said, “We feel strongly that we will be okay [with the regimen].”

What does it entail?

- Lean water management, irrigating every fourth day.
- Frequent flushing.
- Watering, not syringing.
- Keeping the nutrition level up in the summer.
