Coore, Crenshaw make Island music

By MARK LESLIE

EAST HAMPTON, Long Island — The 40-year dream of the three-generation Bistrian family to build East Hampton Golf Club here has come true, and with one improbable improvement: Ben Crenshaw, with partner Bill Coore, designed it.

"I never dreamed of involvement from someone [with Ben's fame]," said Barry Bistrian, son of Bistrian family patriarch Pete. "People here on the island want a high-end golf course. We wanted it the best it could possibly be. But it's a lot more golf course than I ever imagined."

The entire Bistrian family has been heavily involved in the project, including Pete and his wife Mary, both in their 80s, their children Bonnie Krupinski and Barry, president of Bistrian Gravel Corp., and Barry's sons, RJ and Patrick (a zero handicap).

"Some of the nicest people," Coore said about the Bistrians.

"We were so fortunate to get this job."

Pete Bistrian, whose contracting business had worked on some golf courses, first envisioned a course on the property while it's being built, you can't really get a sense for the course's personality," Jones said.

"Now we are creating the golf course's personality," Jones said as he fine-tuned it in September.

"You can only do so much at the drafting table or computer terminal. Unless you visit the course while it's being built, you can't really get a sense for how it will relate to its surroundings and the various natural conditions that exist, like prevailing winds, mountain views, etc."

RTJ II designs private golf club in Las Vegas

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Golf course designer Robert Trent Jones Jr.'s newest Las Vegas creation, Southern Highlands Golf Club, is expected to open in December.

"Now we are creating the golf course's personality," Jones said as he fine-tuned it in September.

"You can only do so much at the drafting table or computer terminal. Unless you visit the course while it's being built, you can't really get a sense for how it will relate to its surroundings and the various natural conditions that exist, like prevailing winds, mountain views, etc. In many ways this is the most exciting and

TIDEWATER RECEIVES FACELIFT

MYRTLE BEACH, S.C. — Tidewater Golf Club here will be renovated by year's end, to help celebrate its 10th anniversary. Tidewater, designed by owner Ken Tomlinson and named best new course of the year when it opened, will replace the turf on the greens with an improved variety of bentgrass, rebuild the bunkers and make other cosmetic improvements.

SMITH TRACK OPENS IN NY

VERONA, N.Y. — Sandstone Hollow Golf Club, a par-3 nine-hole track at Turning Stone Casino Resort in Verona, N.Y., has opened. The dramatic course was designed by Rick Smith and Warren Henderson. Former Golf Course Superintendents Association of America President Joseph Bady is the superintendent.

DORSET, Vt. — Like many private golf clubs with a strong sense of history and tradition, change does not come quickly at Dorset Field Club here. Therefore, it's big news that after 113 years of operating as a nine-hole course, the southern Vermont club has added another nine holes.

Dorset's move to 18 became official in mid-July, when the new holes opened for play. But why did it take so long for Dorset to make the move? Dorset Field had just bought an adjoining plot of land when course architect Steve Durkee approached the club in 1995 with his plans for expansion. The members were convinced that the move to 18 holes was needed, and that Durkee was the right man for the job.

"Steve came to us with several exciting alternative, and was our architect of choice because of his excellent presentation," said Dorset President Tom Barnet.

The nine new holes evoke a links-style feel and are interspersed seamlessly into the historic course. Although the original architect is unknown, many historians point to the Dorset Field Club as the oldest continually operating course in the United States. Members have played over the same golfing grounds since 1886.

Harbottle, Zoeller team up in Reno

RENO, Nev. — Designed by John Harbottle with assistance from PGA Tour star Fuzzy Zoeller, The Challenge at ArrowCreek Golf Club has opened as the city's newest private course.

The Challenge is part of a 36-hole development by Jeff Dingman. ArrowCreek's other course, The Legend, which is open to the public, was designed by Arnold Palmer.

"What makes The Challenge unique," said Harbottle, "is the character of its bunkering and the deep canyon which plays along and across several holes on the back nine."

The course lays out on more than 200
