Couples, Bates collaborate
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. — PGA Tour star Fred Couples and Palm Beach Gardens-based golf course architect Gene Bates will design an 18-hole golf course at Southwood, Arvida’s master-planned community underway in southeast Tallahassee. Bates and Couples expect to break ground on the course late this year.

"I'm looking forward to working with Gene on the layout for Southwood," Couples said. "Every course has its own personality and our goal is to create a design that complements the natural flow of the land, and presents a fun and challenging golf experience for players of all levels."

"We are delighted to have such a talented team designing the first course at Southwood," said Timothy D. Edmond, president of Arvida's Capital Region, who is responsible for developing the 3,200-acre community four miles southeast of the state capitol. "We intend to operate it on a semi-private basis and hope to see the first ball teed up in early 2001."

The holes will meander around groves of massive forests of old oaks, play past natural lakes and marshes, over rolling hills and meadows.

Quintero adopts 'The Jerk Rule'
LAKE PLEASANT, Ariz. — To maintain courtesy and decorum between club members and employees, owner Gary McClung will institute a special rule at Quintero Golf & Country Club. He'll call it 'The Jerk Rule.' Every year, McClung said, the staff will have the opportunity to vote for "The Jerk of the Year" among club members and declare the reasons he or she earned that honor. The club will give that person the option of "adjusting themselves to proper decorum, or we'll pay them off," McClung said.

The hope, he added, is that there will be no "Jerk of the Year."
