Ritz-Carlton barrels into course management with high-end clubs
By JAY FINEGAN
ATLANTA — There's a new player in the competitive field of golf course management, and this one comes loaded with cachet: the Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company, headquartered here.

Supers in Southeast coping with drought
By JAY FINEGAN
HILTON HEAD, S.C. — How bad is it? Here in the southeast corner of South Carolina, only 10.3 inches of rain had fallen as of mid-July. A normal year would have brought 36 inches by Independence Day. And that's after a dismal 1999, when the area came in 10 inches below normal.

Pete Dye finds gold at Lost Canyons
By MEGHAN FOLEY
SIMI VALLEY, Calif. — Take one look at the vast array of hills, slopes, meadows and rolling canyon floors, and it is no wonder why Lost Canyons Golf Club could become one of Pete Dye's greatest design achievements. Despite the fact that the famed architect does not like to compare his courses, he does admit that Lost Canyons is going to be special. The sheer terrain will see to that.
