WES POWERS, 44, DIES
LANARK, Wis. — Men who had worked with Wes Powers at Sentry World in Stevens Point and Foxfire Golf Course in Waupaca will help his widow, Janet, get the Powers' golf course ready to open this spring.

Mr. Powers, 44, passed away peacefully at his home on Nov. 23 after a courageous battle with cancer. His death came one year after building and opening his dream, the 18-hole Lanark Links, in Almond.

"I don't know the first thing about running this golf course," Janet Powers said in December, "but I am determined to do so. It was Wes' dream. It was the one constant in the last months of his life."

He had worked at Sentry World and Foxfire Golf Course. In 1998 he opened Lanark Links, making golf very affordable for youths and adults alike as "our way of giving back to the community," he said then.

Survivors include his wife, two daughters, Jennifer Pagel of Waupaca and Kari Scott of Almond; two sons, Wesley of Stevens Point and Foxfire Golf Course in Onarga, Ill.; three granddaughters, JennaMarie Pagel and Paige and Haley Scott; and his mother, Lula and LeRoy Decker of Almond, Wis. at 7519 Wolf Lake Rd., Almond, Wis. 54909.

People may send donations to Janet Powers at Foxfire Golf Course. In 1998 he opened Lanark Links, making golf very affordable for youths and adults alike as "our way of giving back to the community," he said then.
