Eldredge joining Rainmaker
COLUMBIA, Md. — Paul Eldredge, who retired in December as president of Wadsworth Golf Construction Co., will join The Rainmaker Group, a golf course and residential development concern, as a principal. Eldredge will serve part-time as executive vice president, assuming business development and project management responsibilities on both golf and residential projects. He worked 37 years for Wadsworth and was involved in building more than 500 golf courses around the country. “After nearly 40 years in the business, I wanted to take a broader role in development,” Eldredge said.

Sasser joins Weitz
NORTH PALM BEACH, Fla. — Weitz Golf International has hired Warren T. “Tommy” Sasser as vice president of marketing. Sasser’s primary responsibility will be to direct the company’s golf course construction marketing efforts. Prior to joining Weitz Golf, Sasser was president of Golf Development Consultants. Sasser is on the board of directors of the Golf Course Builders Association of America, and is a member of the National Golf Foundation, Golf Course Superintendents Association of America, Urban Land Institute and the Urban Land Institute’s Urban Land Leadership Council.

Phelps lands Vail job
VAIL, Colo. — The Eagle-Vail Metro District has received $3.5 million of bond financing for improvements to the Eagle-Vail golf course. The golf course design firm of Richard M. Phelps, Ltd. has been asked to plan improvements, including five in a row and setting a standard for winning that has not been equaled since. Elected to the LPGA Hall of Fame in 1987 at the age of 30, she is still active on the Tour, but has set her sights on a new challenge: golf course design. Working with her agent, IMG, she has launched Nancy Lopez Design and is already winning contracts for two projects. In the meantime, she has been selected to receive the prestigious Old Tom Morris Award in February from the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America. Editor Mark Leslie found her giving up dreaming.

Recently the two announced their latest vision: • Whispering Pines Golf Club, 18 holes built on “a very special” 400-acre tract of land about 90 miles north of Houston, in Trinity County, Texas, next door to Camp Olympia. • World Health & Golf Association, a not-for-profit corporation whose beneficiaries are the world-renowned Texas Medical Center Institutions and a First Tee Program for 5,000 fifth-graders.
