Simplot T&H is already strong in the Pacific Rim and Asia, with offices in China and Australia, where the company intends to focus its first efforts.

"We need to handle those markets better and build the Simplot brand," he said.

"There is still room to grow."

The division is also developing a business plan to increase sales in Europe and Central and South America.

OVERSEAS EXPANSION

Yanagisawa said that the division will also be looking to open more representative offices overseas and adding to staff.

"We don't have set locations yet," he said. "But we will go where the opportunities are the greatest. There are more right now in Asia. Europe is at least three years down the road."

Establishing international production facilities also could be on the horizon. "We will continue to export seed because we have enough production," said Yanagisawa. "But as we build the business and volume, we will look at producing locally to establish our brand and expand the market."

In other Simplot T&H news, the Jacklin Seed division has completed the restructuring of its management team.

Bill Whitacre, group president, will take over Yanagisawa's duties. In addition, Chris Claypool will be the sales director and Doug Brede, Ph.D., will direct research and development. Rich Underwood will be the Oregon location manager, and Glenn Jacklin will run the Idaho and Washington locations.
