T-Links, Teetimes.com form alliance

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. — T-Links Inc. and Teetimes.com have reached an agreement for Teetimes.com to be the exclusive provider of tee time technology for T-Links's 150-plus member courses. Regional introduction of the system will begin immediately with the first installation planned for courses in Atlantic City, N.J.

The five-year partnership agreement will include installation of the Teetimes.com system into T-Links courses in Hilton Head, S.C.; the Sandhills/Pinehurst region of North Carolina; Myrtle Beach, S.C.; Biloxi, Miss., and Charleston, S.C. The Teetimes.com suite includes a tee sheet and yield management system, integration with existing point of sale programs and real-time on line hotel golf packaging services.

"Teetimes.com provides the mix of technology, reliability and customer service that we were looking for," said T-Links president Terry Sedalik. "We received very good recommendations from our other regions where their system is installed, including Ocean City, Williamsburg and Virginia Beach. We will begin the installation process on a region by region basis."

The new reservation system will replace the T-Links system, which was designed and developed in Myrtle Beach in 1992. The existing computer platform will be replaced by Teetime.com's Oracle/Solaris network, allowing the regions to take full advantage of the Internet and other advances in technology to effectively and efficiently promote their business.

Teetimes.com CEO Danny Stoval said the T-Links agreement marks a turning point for the company. "Our biggest challenge is not technology. It's not attracting golfers to our site. It is signing up golf courses," he said. "The T-Links group includes some of the most well-known and respected courses in the country. We are confident that this agreement will provide the catalyst for us to rapidly expand our Teetimes.com course network."

Marriott Golf sends up Waller

ORLANDO, Fla. — Robert Waller, CGCS, has been named associate director of grounds operations for Marriott Golf.

Waller will assist with establishing preferred vendor accounts while maintaining the existing accounts of Marriott Golf properties. He will also handle recruitment of superintendents, work closely with the company's golf property development team, and conduct site visits and field reviews of Marriott layouts.

membership standards for the portfolio as a secondary effect of the program. "This program strengthens our member benefits at each of our private clubs," Donahue said. "The reciprocity program provides us the opportunity to leverage our marketing within our markets by offering a unique benefit."

In addition to the reciprocal playing privileges at the private and semi-private clubs, members also have access to more than 20 of Palmer Golf's daily-fee facilities nationwide at a preferred rate.

Furthermore, Palmer Golf private club members have reciprocal playing privileges at more than 20 international affiliate clubs through a unique partnership with International Management Group's Sportsclub. These international additions provide members to discounted greens fees of up to 50 percent.

If the label's on it, the best is in it.

Now it's easy to know whether you have the best turfgrass mixtures and blends available. Just look for the Jacklin Quality label. The Jacklin Quality label on the bag says you're planting turfgrass varieties with:

• the industry's leading private research and breeding program behind them
• a wealth of innovation that has led the world in turfgrass development for nearly seven decades
• proven performance that combines unsurpassed color, turf quality and disease resistance

You never have to wonder if the best is in the bag when the Jacklin name is on it. So the next time you order seed, ask for Jacklin Quality inside. You'll forever be labeled as somebody who knows how to grow great turfgrass.
