NEW HEDDON STEEL SHAFT IN HILLERICH & BRADSBY LINE

Dowagiac, Mich.—The new Heddon steel golf shaft, produced by the well known fishing tackle manufacturers, James Heddon's Sons, is to be first introduced at the Louisville Open tournament and will be found in the new pro line of Hillerich & Bradsby under the trade name of "Pro-Flex." Each shaft is custom drawn and specially adapted to each individual club head in matched sets. It is produced from a special steel, heat treated by patented electrical methods and tapered by a new process, which gives a straight grain in the shaft structure. This shaft embodies a new principle in steel shaft construction.

First Cousin to ANY Budget

Mowing maintenance costs sharply drop once the Budd goes into action. Its four edges (you change the Budd in a jiffy, you know, just like a razor blade) mean always sharp cutting—both of grass and expenses. Be sure it's on your 1935 list of necessities! You'll never regret it.
