Helen Shane and Frank Walsh, for second consecutive year won the Pro-Junior Girls annual competition sponsored by Illinois PGA. Event was played at Waveland course, Lincoln Park, Chicago, August 9, before a large gallery. During the competition, which was on a selective drive, alternate shot basis, with the girls' handicaps allowed, the pros answered gallery questions, explained shots and pointed out some of the golf rules.

even carry on the ordinary operating costs.”

From S. W. Izard, chairman of the finance committee of the Blue Hills CC (Kansas City district) comes a case history and advice on sinking fund protection that is essential.

Relates Mr. Izard:

“It seems that private clubs are again filling their rosters and I hope that lack of definite financial policies which has been true of many clubs, will not be permitted to continue, although this is quite apt to be the case.

Make Sinking Funds Inviolate for Their Purpose

“My contact with such funds is limited to that of Meadow Lake CC. We leased the ground, the lease expiring in 1942. In 1927 the members approved a plan for a property acquisition fund of $1.50 per member for the purpose of retiring the remaining balance of the mortgage and to provide money for the purchase from time to time of such equipment as becomes obsolete or wears out and for purposes other than the running expenses which are provided for by dues. I believe our members would strongly object to an increase in dues. On the contrary I believe they could be sold on the idea of establishing a sinking and depreciation fund under some plan similar to that which we used at Meadow Lake CC.

“Such funds always should be kept
