Midlothian Honors 'Haig' By
Silver Jubilee Tourney

By 'Shorty' Fall

TWENTY-FIVE years is a long time to stay on top or among the leaders in any profession, yet there is one name in the blue book of golf that stands out—Walter Hagen—who hot or cold, rain or shine has been playing the golf courses of the world, capturing a title here and there and always giving the galleryites one of golfdom's greatest shows. In acknowledgment of that fact, "the Haig" will be honored by a silver jubilee tournament, at Midlothian Country Club, Chicago district, the scene of his first major triumph, the National Open, in which he beat Chick Evans by one stroke with a score of 290. His rounds in that August 25 years ago were 68, 74, 75, 73.

This month, Aug. 24-27, sixteen of the leading pros of the nation, numbering some of his old friends and friendly enemies, battle-scared by many a tough match with the old master, will gather in the nicest sentimental gesture of the age. Eight two-man teams will compete in a $5,400 round robin tournament in which each team meets every other team. The winning team is determined at the end of four days of play on the basis of the most holes won. The sixteen players who compose these teams are present and former title holders of all American and British professional and open tournaments. Hagen himself, Sarazen, Guldahl, Snead, Picard, Revolta, Shute and Harrison, Runyan and Smith, Nelson and Metz, Thomson and Armour, and Dudley and Burke.

Success of British Event Is Tip-off for U. S. Pros

DICK BURTON, British Open winner, gave warning that he was hot, when a month before the Open, he teamed with veteran Fred Robson and won the True Temper $5,000 Professional Foursomes after a 3-way tie with the Henry Cotton, B. A. Shepard and R. Cox-L. Topping teams.

The event drew a field of 178. Partners were drawn from a hat, established pros picking from slips bearing the names of younger pros and assistants.

It looks like a great training event, as well as one of considerable gallery interest. There's nothing of this sort on American tournament schedules. The event might well be added to sectional PGA tournament calendars until it's put on in a big way by some sponsor.

Suggests Spring Exhibitions to Advertise Pro Services

TOM MURPHY, Ipswich (Mass.) pro, comes up with an idea worth considering well in advance of the 1940 season. Tom suggests that leading manufacturers and pros put on spring golf shows in key cities early next spring. Displays of equipment, demonstrations and group instruction by the big-name pros would have a terrific circus sock, Tom says, and would give the pros the spectacular advertising and sales effort they need to impress upon the public the value of pro service-selling.

Murphy is of the opinion that a group operation by pros in each sector could be conducted at assembly halls, hotels or other convention halls, and set the stage so pros could sell considerable equipment. He believes that in such shows displays making an ideal arrangement for gallery and players alike. Play will begin each morning at 9:30 and each afternoon at 2:30.

Partners for the event are: Hagen and Sarazen, Guldahl and Snead, Picard and Revolta, Shute and Harrison, Runyan and Smith, Nelson and Metz, Thomson and Armour, and Dudley and Burke.
