Col. John Morley Retires As Active Greenkeeper

Col. John Morley, dean of the nation's greenkeepers, president-emeritus of the GSA and greenkeeper at the Youngstown (Ohio) CC the past 27 years, retired from active service the first of March. Col. Morley, who will be 75 years old next August 24, was the founder of the GSA and served as president the first six years of its existence. He has been engaged in greenkeeping for 47 years, and has visited more than 200 courses over the country, advising golf and government experts on the care of turf and treatment of disease.

Frank Purnell, green-chairman at Youngstown, emphasized that Col. Morley still would be available in an advisory capacity. Active work at the club has been turned over to Bill Guthrie, who transferred from the Mahoning CC to Youngstown a year ago as assistant. Col. Morley, in Feb. 1940, was awarded a plaque honoring him as "the man who had done most during 1939 for the greenkeeping profession."

Industrial Golf Leagues of America have been organized by Lew Waldron, well-known pro golfer. Headquarters of the organization are at 72 W. Washington St., Chicago; Tel. Randolph 7868. Newspaper promotion tie-ups are a feature of the plan.

Teams consist of four players with two alternates. There is one league for men and another for women. There are three classes of teams in both leagues. Men are handicapped in 15 or less, 16-22, and 23-30 handicaps, and women in classes of those shooting 105 or less, 106-120 and 121 and up.
