Acushnet "Pro-only Policy" to be Continued

★ New Bedford (Mass.) Standard Times, in home town of Acushnet Process Sales Co. recently reviewed Acushnet's "pro-only" policy, saying:

"August 1935, Acushnet inaugurated its 'sold-through-Pro-Shops-only' golf ball policy. From this policy the company has participated. A night club tossed a party with golf equipment as admission, which netted 70 sets of clubs."

Acushnet "Pro-only Policy" to be Continued

★ PINEHURST GOLDEN JUBILEE — Pinehurst, N. C. observes its 50th anniversary this fall. Among other features of the celebration is the 43d annual North and South Open championship. History of the world-famed golf resort is being told in special editions of the Pinehurst Outlook, published by Robt. E. Harlow.

★ HORTON RESUMES CLOMBAKING — Horton Mfg. Co., Bristol, Conn. began production of its new lines of clubs Oct. 1 and expects to be in full operation by Jan. 1, 1946. Plant was a big producer of war materiel.