R&A says long ball is “tending to change the nature of the game and even the design of the course.”

★ EDWARD B. DEARIE, JR., BE-REAVED—Mrs. Edward B. Dearie, Jr., 46, wife of the nationally known maintenance authority, died in the Elmhurst, Ill., hospital recently following an operation. She was known to many in golf as a lovely, cheery wife, mother and friend.
Last August the Dearies suffered the loss of one of their sons, Lt. Edward Gerald Dearie, 27, in battle with the U. S. 1st Army. Lt. Dearie was one of the first to land in Normandy, and had been frequently decorated for bravery.

POSTWAR ORDERS

★ IRVIN E. SCHLOSS, pro, at Mt. Pleasant GC, Towson, Md., is a wise hombre who’s helping his patrons make certain they’ll be among the first to get postwar golf equipment. And by the method Schloss uses you may be sure that he’s closing off some of the cut-throat store competition that’s bound to appear.

Schloss has a budget system enabling players to pay now for equipment that they’ll get just as soon as it starts coming from the factories. He supplies the players with a small folder in which dates and amounts of their payments are recorded. Priority numbers are is-issued in order of application for these folders.

He advertises his plan on a postcard which he has mailed to men and women who play at Mt. Pleasant. The card reads:

BE AMONG THE FIRST
to have
NEW GOLF EQUIPMENT
When it is made
