pro star along with the Canuck cousins struck sports writers covering the Chicago meeting of the PGA as adding an event that would rank even with the Ryder Cup competition. The U.S.-Candian competition is to be sponsored by John Jay Hopkins, a former member of Bel Air at Los Angeles, where Joe Novak is pro, and now residing in Washington.
D. C. Hopkins is pres., Electric Boat Corp. (submarine builders) and of Can-adair, an aircraft manufacturing company of Montreal. Kenneth Murray, pres., PGA of Canada, who attended the Chicago meeting as an honorary vp of the PGA of America, cordially approved the idea for his pro colleagues.

Hopkins was added to the PGA Advisory committee at the convention. Others taken on were Harry Radix, former pres., Chicago District GA, and donor of the Radix trophy which antedated the PGA's Vardon trophy for the year's tournament low-scoring average; Bob Stranahan of Toledo, Champion Spark Plug Co. pres., former Ohio senior champion and Frank's dad; Hugh Dean of Detroit, a top executive of General Motors; Hugh Radar, Detroit lumber magnate; Hord Hardin, St.
Louis lawyer who has been active in Western GA and in St. Louis golf promotion; B. H. Ridder of St. Paul, publisher of several strong newspapers and father of two fine young businessmen golfers, and Ed Sullivan, TV mc.

Bing Crosby was made chmn., PGA Advisory committee, with Bob Hudson as vice chmn., and George S. May, sec.
Crosby was unable to attend the Chicago meeting.

Advisors Seek Tourney Answers

The Advisory committee recommended that tournament players aid sponsors by making specific commitments 60 days in advance of tournaments and come forth with definite plans for raising funds for the Ryder Cup match and tournament bureau financing. The committee also proposed formation of a joint committee of manufacturers, PGA executives and Advisory committee members be formed to try to find some solution for the tournament problems now are too many tournaments for the calendar, prospect of further crowding to make dates for proposed U.S.-Canadian matches and Champion's event, sponsors and newspaper criticism of stars for non-appearance at tournaments, stars getting tired of year-around tournament grind,
