GOLFERS TAKE TO RULES THIS EASY WAY

More than 60,000 "Easy Way to Learn Golf Rules" books have been distributed to golf clubs, leagues, schools and individuals since the beginning of the year, according to Rex McMorris, dir. of the National Golf Foundation. The book containing 80 pages presents the rules in an entertaining way made more easily understood by 60 cartoons and illustrations. Major changes made in the Official Rules of Golf effective Jan. 1, 1952 are included. The book is published with the permission of the USGA by the Foundation as an aid to the beginner and the uninitiated and has become popular with the more experienced. Special discounts are made on quantity lots.

The seed was applied at the rate of 75 lbs. per acre. After the seed was on it was dragged in and rolled in three directions. The sprinklers were then turned on and the fairway thoroughly watered. It was never allowed to dry out from then on until it was ready to cut.

The seed was germinated and showing by September 29 and was cut at 3/8 of an inch for the first time October 22.

The catch of grass was very good and I am quite sure will be a fine fairway this year.

Jaycees Expect 25,000 to Enter Junior Championship

Extensive pre-tournament activity being conducted by local organizations throughout the country have led U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce Sports and Recreation director Don Neer to believe the 1952 National Jaycee Junior Amateur Golf Championship will be the biggest yet held.

Tournament is to be held August 11-16 at the Eugene (Ore.) CC. Byron Nelson will conduct the pre-tourney clinic for more than 200 boys gathered for championship play.

With many more local Jaycee organizations scheduling local Jaycee Junior golf events, Neer believes that more than 25,000 boys will play in regional qualifying rounds for the event, exceeding by 5000 the number of boys 18 or under who battled for the 1951 title won by Doug Sanders, Cedartown, Ga.
