The 17th hole at Southern Hills CC, Tulsa, Okla., is typical of the excellent layout tended by Supt. John C. Price and his maintenance crew. About 350 yards long, the hole is marked by heavy rough, plenty of trees and a ditch on the right that extends from the tee practically to the green. The green, of seaside bent, encompasses about 5,000 sq. ft. of putting surface, is quite undulating and cup placement can be tricky. Depression born, Southern Hills was designed by the late Perry Maxwell and is rated by Ben Hogan as one of the top three courses in the country. The Women's Amateur was played here in 1946 and the USGA National Junior in 1953.

Everett Queen Sold Himself on MILORGANITE...

There are no better greens than those Everett Queen keeps at Wichita Country Club. He is the first to credit others for his success with them—Wes Updegraff for construction, a competent crew, and a wealth of knowledge gathered at local, regional, and national meetings.

Everett's work planning places heavy emphasis on training, realizing it reflects credit on the teacher. He was the first to employ Colorado A. & M. students and classify jobs for labor. An important part of his planning includes the use of Milorganite—a 50-ton car this year. Everett tested and compared Milorganite with other fertilizers to "sell himself" on its value at Wichita Country Club.

"Five years ago, I started a fairway rebuilding program with AGRICO Country Club 8-6-4 fertilizer to really encourage good, healthy growth. For the past two years, I used AGRICO FOR TURF 6-8-2. I am very pleased with the outstanding AGRICO results of this 5-year program. The turf is much healthier, has thickened up and now has excellent growth and color.

AGRICO has given the same excellent results on greens and tees. But the one big difference was this: prior to my AGRICO fairway feeding program it was necessary to play winter rules because of thin, sparse turf. Now we no longer need to play winter rules—thanks to AGRICO!"

national junior championship to be at Columbus, O., this summer... Et. Wayne (Ind.) CC has big party celebrating 11th year of Orville Chaplin's service as its pro... Club gave Orville an engraved watch, his wife, Natalie, a TV set for her fine work in the pro dept... Louis Fritz, Orville's asst., also had his service substantially appreciated... At the dinner a veteran member presented a history of the club which was founded in 1908... The manuscript has been bound as a lasting record.

Drought has retarded conditioning of southern courses for winter play... Regardless of excellence of fairway watering systems rain is needed to do the required job... Bill Kaiser, Hillerich and Bradsby vp and one of the best-liked fellows in golf, now is the only salesman who has a PGA title... Bill won the Kentucky PGA championship last fall in a 3 and 2 victory over the defending champion, Fithian Shaw of Crescent Hill... Ock Willoweit of MacGregor's came close to being a salesman holder of a PGA title by finishing as runner-up in the 1956 PGA Seniors' championship.

British golf will have a tough time if gasoline rationing is continued... Lack of automobile transportation to courses also will knock the tournaments out... That'll be a blow to the development of British pro competitive talent that had begun to show bright international class.

Henry Cotton coming over in late Feb. to play in Florida, then in Masters and will be playing in other U.S. events until May 15... The former British Open champion, now 50, showed in the 1956 U.S. National Open that he may be the world's top senior golfer... He's the leading European instructor and this winter is again conducting his golf school at Cannes, France.

Death of Al Espinosa, 64, at Oakland, Calif., Veterans' hospital, after a prolonged illness with cancer, ended the career of a founder of the pro tournament circuit... Al's widow, Jo Espinosa and Mrs. Tommy Armour, wrote the letters and did other correspondence arranging the promotion that got the circuit under way... Al lost to Bob Jones in a play-off for the 1929 National Open and was runner-up to Leo Diegel in the 1928 PGA... He was one of five brothers who started as caddies at Monterey, Calif... He was on pro jobs in Seattle, Chicago, Akron and Mexico City and designed several courses... Mrs. Espinosa, their daughter, Mrs. Helen Ford and brothers Abe, Henry, Raymond and Romie survive.

Willie Klein, 55, who was pro at Wheatley Hills GC, L.L., and La Gorce CC, Miami Beach, died Jan. 3 in Nassau hospital, Mineola, N.Y. after six months illness (cancer)... Willie was a fine player, excellent teacher and grand gentleman all around... He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. J. P. Hevener and Mrs. Dale R. Keen.

Tournament circuit first prize reduced from $2400 to $2000 in one $15,000 event, from $4000 to $2800 in a $20,000 tourney and from $6000 to $4300 in a $30,000 tournament.

Jack McAuliffe is certain to make a new major event of the national mixed foursome 2-ball amateur championship that will be played at Boca Raton (Fla.) Club, Feb. 12-16 ... The change from the Everglades club at Palm Beach gives more room for the field of 60 ... Chairman McAuliffe and his committee of Barbara Romack, Polly Riley, Mrs. Philip Cudone, Willie Turnesa, Dick Chapman and Jack Penrose expect this year's amateur star field will be followed by a 1958 field of international character.

PGA officials work so well at their unpaid jobs they practically have to shoot their way out of office ... Dugan Aycock, Lexington (N.C.) CC, re-elected Carolinas PGA pres., for 11th time and Purvis Ferree, Old Town Club, Winston Salem, N.C., re-elected the section's secy-treas. for 14th time ... Harold Seig, Minnesota PGA pres., said "Absolutely no" after three years and Babe Orff, Stillwater CC, former secy-treas. was elected to the section's presidency ... Don Waryan of Woodhill is the new secy-treas. in Minnesota and George Lehan of Brookview GC is vp.

rest of you; I've got a thousand swings, and each one of them is different." Jack noted that a big gripe among tournament pros is to spend a lot of time practicing on fine turf only to end up playing on tournament courses where turf is thin, fairways are sandy or full of clover or practically devoid of grass. Burke said he cured his hooking miseries by putting his left hand straight on the grip so he can make more use of his right hand.

Hands High on Backswing

Jackie also told the audience that when he began getting his hands higher on the backswing he eliminated looseness of hands and wristiness.

Toski and Burke discussed how a fellow feels when he's winning. They agreed that desire to win, willingness to work patiently on one's game and make sacrifices to polish one's technique are as essential to a triumphant golf career as hitting the kind of good shots that most golfers can hit fairly often, but not often enough and not always at the right time.

Golf Cars Are Fine

resigned himself to giving up his favorite game some years ago — just didn't have it in his legs to go more than a few holes. His fifty year old son brought him out one day, rented a golf car for an 18-hole round and now they have a weekly match going. The old man proudly claims he's as young as his son with a car making up the 30-year difference in leg power!

And, there are the golfers who had been playing 9 holes, ran out of gas and never reached the tenth tee — but now are playing 18 holes without puffing.

Youngsters Use Feet

We occasionally get youngsters at Westgate who want to rent a car. They don't get one. However, the youngster who comes out with his mother, whether she plays or not, gets a buggy without an argument!

In the beginning, like other golf operators, I was concerned about the cars creating a traffic problem on the course and interfering with the play of pedestrian players. Except in very rare cases the cars move right along with the rest of the play. We've learned that the few and minor disadvantages resulting from the use of the cars are far outweighed by the contribution the golf buggy has made to our operation at Westgate Valley!

Oregonian; Robert Morrison, St. Louis Post-Dispatch; Bert Prather, Atlanta Constitution; Bob Tonge, Los Angeles Herald Express; Hal Wood, United Press, San Francisco; Roger Barry, Quincy, Mass., Patriot Ledger.

Objection of members of some PGA sections to pro-supts. as officers of section organizations and of members of some Golf Course Supt. Associations to men in combination jobs as GCSA officials is diminishing. There are a lot of very good men in those jobs and they’re giving smaller clubs service which is building up the clubs. No pro-supt. that we know would want both the jobs.
if he could get a good income with just one of them.

British Amateur (May 27-June 1) switched from Royal St. Georges, Sandwich, to Formby, between Liverpool and Southport . . .
