Swinging Around Golf

(Continued from page 120)

completely rebuilt 18-hole course to be reopened Apr. 1 . . . Originally built in 1923, and known as Wolf Hollow, it was abandoned early in World War II . . . The clubhouse, with hotel facilities, has been remodeled . . . Walt Thiel, formerly at Glen Brook CC, Stroudsburg, Pa., is pro, and Floyd Starner, supt.

Northwest GCSA pamphlet, just off the press, includes membership roster and by-laws . . .
Henry Land, Jr., is pres. of the organization; Ken Putnam is vp and Milton Bauman, secy. treas. . . Women’s Western Golf Asso. Junior Open will be played at Inverness CC, Palatine, Ill., Aug. 4-8 . . . This is the 32nd year for the event.

New Orleans CC to hold its 21st annual Invitation tournament, Mar. 28-30 . . . Champions-ship flight to be medal play and all others, match play . . . Dale Morey has won the tournament for the last three years . . . Bob Nodus, a member of the Michigan State College golf team in 1957, becomes asst. to Ed Gauntt, Jr., pro at CC of Lansing . . . Corky Gaunt to take over as pro at new Michigan State 18-hole course on Apr. 1.

A onetime waitress who absconded with 27 pieces of silverware from Tam O Shanter CC, Niles, Ill., more than 25 years ago, recently returned it . . . The reason: She recently joined a church and wanted to get the theft off her conscience . . . Cary Middlecoff recently established a course record for the new Diplomat CC, Hollywood, Fla., by shooting a 65 . . . The only trouble is that Cary might lower this one before GOLFDOM gets off the press.

W. C. (Dubi) Bowie, formerly pro at Beauregard CC, De Ridder, La., moves over to Franklin (La.) CC . . . New Oakbourne CC, Lafayette, La., has 1,000 members . . . It was built largely due to the efforts of Bill Bass, Lafayette businessman . . . Gene Williams is pro . . . South-wester Louisiana Institute preparing to launch golf instruction program for students this spring . . . Williams and Lee Conover, pro at Lafayette Muny, helping Margaret McMillan of the school’s physical ed dept. to get the project on its feet.

Ang Bozuto, asst. to Al Renzetti in the extensive and successful instruction program that Al conducts for Westchester County (N.Y.) Recreation Committee, has been signed as pro by the Blauvelt (N.Y.) CC . . . This Renzetti is a busy guy . . . In addition to running the Westchester County winter program, he is pro at Empire State CC, chmn., Junior Golf committee of Metropolitan PGA and sec.-treas. of Westchester PGA.

Wallis Champion is manager of Goldthwaite’s Texas Toro Co. new branch opened March 1 at 1623 Broadway, San Antonio, Tex. . . Nice thing for Otto Grieshaber, supt. El Rio CC, Tuscon, Ariz., when Associated Press story widely carried John Barnum’s remark from Tuscon Open: “El Rio’s greens are the best we’ve played on all winter.”