Swinging Around Golf

(Continued from page 117)

make many other improvements at Tarpon Springs, which is a few miles north of the PGA National course at Dunedin.

Robert C. King, widely known factory rep for golf playing equipment companies, recently elected pres., Rainier G&CC, Seattle, Wash. . . Rarely does anyone in golf business become a club president . . . They know too much about the work and responsibilities to take the jobs . . . Before King was elected by Rainier, Fred Bowman, then pres., Wilson Sporting Goods Co., was the only man prominent in golf business that we recall who became a club pres. in recent years . . . Fred headed Sunset Ridge CC in the Chicago district.

A. J. Nightingale, resigns as pro at Cannon (N. M.) Air Force Base course to open a 9-hole course and clubhouse at Dyess Air Force Base, Abilene, Tex. . . Les Stehr, now mgr., Olympia (Wash.) C&GC . . . Ray Baker is new mgr. of Muskegon (Mich.) CC . . Duane Bergstrom now pro-mgr. Ellensburg (Wash.) G&CC . . . George Hoffer, part owner and for past two years pro at Meadow Links, Huntington, W. Va., now at Sleepy Hollow CC, near Hurricane, W. Va. . . Second 9 of Wayneboro (Va.) CC to open in May . . Florida West Coast GCSA meeting at Bradenton CC honors Dode Bolesta who has retired after 30 years as supt., Palma Ceia CC, Tampa, Fla. . . Dode's colleagues gave him a trophy and a rod and reel.

Gene May, for past two years at Rainier CC, Seattle, Wash., moves to pro job at Longview (Wash.) CC . . Joseph Paul Brugiglio now pro-supt., Barre (Vt.) CC . . . Goes there from Atmore (Ala.) CC . . . Jaek Cummings from Miami to be pro at Fred Waring's Shawnee CC, Shawnee-on-Delaware, Pa. . . Press Patterson, who, with his brother Al, has been on Roland Wingate's staff at Ft. Myers (Fla.) CC, goes to Shawnee with Cummings.