cause competition seems to be getting a little tougher each year. We don’t stop to think that maybe our competitors are saying the same thing. Pros have some advantages that should be exploited — they have as much or more purchasing power as the average small businessman; and practically all have a loyal market made up of from 200 to 400 people who are in position to spend more money than the average consumer. With these things working for us, we should do as well or better than the next guy if we are alert to the sales opportunities that surround us.”
