GOLFMG ACROSS CANADA
Lush, verdant courses on the slopes of the Rocky Mountains or in the scenic valleys between; stunning layouts on the windswept plains of Western Canada; courses hewn from the deep bush and impenetrable rock of the Canadian Shield; the world’s most difficult public course in exciting Toronto; the French flavor of Quebec; and the lovely seaside courses of Atlantic Canada, so reminiscent of Britain and Scotland.

The season blooms with spring and runs into the colorful Canadian Indian summer, which can stretch until mid-November (or all year in British Columbia).

Entry into Canada is simple. Citizens or permanent residents of the U.S. do not need passports or visas. (To assist border officers, however, visitors should carry proof of citizenship.) Necessary wearing apparel and personal effects are admitted duty-free. Up to 50 cigars, 200 cigarettes, two pounds of tobacco and 40 ounces of alcoholic beverages per adult may be included, as well as sports equipment declared at point of entry.

For the golfing holiday of a lifetime, challenge Canada. Some of the finest, most spectacular courses in the world are waiting for you. Air Canada and Canadian Pacific Air offer daily transcontinental service for the visiting golfer who prefers to travel by air. Canadian National and Canadian Pacific Railways also offer excellent rail service from coast to coast.

ATLANTIC CANADA

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

Can be reached via ferry from Cape Tormentine, New Brunswick or Charlottetown, Nova Scotia.

This tiny province has seven courses sprinkled over its rolling pastoral landscape. P.E.I. gets considerable rainfall, while temperatures rarely exceed 75 degrees. Courses do not "bake out" in July or August heat waves. Spend a week—play a different course each day.

BRUDENELL G & CC: An 18-hole, 6,500-yard layout, 30 miles east of Charlottetown. Hard by the Brudenell River, a fact you’re not likely to forget as there are seven water holes. The course is part of an overall sports complex that includes first-class motel accommodations, lounges, etc. Green fees: $3 through May, June, September and October; $4 for July and August. Weekly rate is $12 and $15, respectively.

BELVEDERE G & WINTER CLUB: On outskirts of Charlottetown, the only semi-private club on P.E.I. Guests must tee off before 3 P.M. on weekdays and after the same hour on weekends and holidays. Is 6,372 yards (par-72). Green fees: $4, May-October.

STANHOPE: Newest course on north shore. Is 16 miles from Charlottetown. Layout, terrain and rates similar to Brudenell.

RUSTICO: Less than 10 miles from Stanhope, 18 holes around the shores of Rustico Bay. Restaurant, clubhouse, pro shop. Green fees: $2, May-Oct.

GREEN GABLES: The 6,269-yard course is the home of "Anne of Green Gables." Anyone who plays it will remember the approach to the ninth green, which sits atop a high cliff and is guarded by water at the bottom, with Anne Hathaway’s cottage almost beside it. Green fees: $4, May-October.

MILL RIVER: Officially opened in 1971, an 18-hole course on Highway 2 in the Cascumpeque Bay area, toward the east of the island. A challenging test, already being compared to Brudenell. Same rates, too.

SUMMERSIDE G & CC: 18 holes, a few miles from Malpeque Bay. Oysters are the restaurant specialties. Green fees: $3, May 15-October 15.

NOVA SCOTIA

Sport fishermen and summer sailors are well acquainted with Canada’s easternmost province. Golfers should be, too.

CAPE BRETON HIGHLANDS: One of the great adventures in golf, this fiendishly difficult yet irresistible course combines seaside, valley and mountain settings in perfect proportion. The course plays 6,475 yards (par-72) and has at least one particularly memorable hole, the 565-yard fifth, called "Kilkillicrankie," meaning in Gaelic “a pain in the key area.”

Fine food and gracious elegance are trademarks of Keltic Lodge. The course and lodge are all part of Cape Breton Highlands National Park.

NEW ASHBURN: At Kinsac Lake, longest course in Nova Scotia at over 7,100 yards (par-72). Carved out of virgin lakeside woodland. A huge double green serves the sixth and 11th holes.
OLD ASHBURN GC: Within city of Halifax. It's narrow, hilly, well-wooded and watered. Short at 5,322 yards (par-66), the emphasis is on accuracy. Very reasonable green fees.

YARMOUTH G & CC: Gorse, briar and occasional fog give course a Scottish flavor.

DIGBY PINES: This 300-acre resort overlooking Bay of Fundy offers complete family recreational facilities. 94 guest rooms, 28 cottages and a 6,140-yard (par-71) layout that winds through trees, over rolling hills and blue water. Special six-day golf package includes accommodations, breakfast and dinner, complete use of facilities for $117 shared, $141 for single. Digby Bay scallops should be sampled.

TRURO GC: At 6,380 yards (par-70), it is site of major provincial tournaments every year.

BRIGHTWOOD G & CC: Perched on a high hill in center of Dartmouth, it offers spectacular views of both Dartmouth and Halifax. Course is 5,705 yards long (par-68).

LINGAN CC: Just outside Sydney, considered one of toughest courses in Atlantic area. It's 6,711 yards long and has a par-six hole for ladies.

KEN-WO: Halfway between Kentville and Wolfville. Has a spectacular back nine.

NEW BRUNSWICK

This province offers many unusual attractions, such as reversing waterfalls, the longest covered bridge in the world, the Magnetic Hill, where your ear seems to coast uphill backwards, and the 80 square-mile wilderness that is Fundy National Park. There are also some fine golf courses.

THE ALGONQUIN HOTEL: In St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, 68 miles east of St. John on Highway 1. A resort landmark on shores of Passamaquoddy Bay for more than 80 years. The 6,314-yard (par-71) course has 12 of its 18 holes either beside or in full view of the Bay. Green fees: $5.50 or $27.50 a week. Holiday package (Fairway Plan) offers 7 days, 6 nights accommodations with breakfast and dinner, golf, all other resort facilities from $99 standard (double occupancy) to $115 superior, plus 8% provincial tax.

MACATAQUAC PROVINCIAL PARK AND GC: 10 miles west of Fredericton and five miles off the Trans-Canada Highway on Route 105. Entry to park is 50¢ per day or $2 for the season, which also allows entry to all New Brunswick provincial parks. The course, designed for the Canadian Open, plays at 7,030 yards (par-72). Green fees: $4 weekdays; $5 weekends and holidays; $20 for seven days; 30-day period, $50 men, $40 women; seasonal, $90 men, $75 women. Caddies available by prior arrangement; hand carts, 65¢ per day; electric cars, $6 for 18 holes or $3.50 for nine; club rentals, $1.50 per day. The lodge is fully licensed, with a large dining room.

FREDERICTON GC: Three miles from downtown Fredericton via Highway 2, a well-trapped, hilly par-70 layout at only 5,934 yards. Hand carts and clubs for rent. Green fees: $5; $25 weekly and $50 monthly. Abundant accommodations available in area, with cabins at the edge of course, hotels and motels within a mile.

RIVERSIDE CC: At East Riverside, eight miles northeast of Saint John via the Old Rothesay Road. The 18 holes play over 5,960 yards (par-71). Hand carts available for $1, electric cars for $7.50, clubs for $4. The club is private, but members of other private clubs may play for green fees of $5.

MIDWEST MANITOBA

Manitoba, entrance to the vast Canadian prairie region, has many attractions for the golfing tourist: Churchill, the country's most northerly deep-sea port, where Eskimo life can be glimpsed, or whales watched at play; the 24-foot statue of Flintabatty Flonatin, designed by Al Capp, at Flin Flon; Fort Garry, the only stone fort of the fur-trade era still intact in North America; Winnipeg, a city surrounded by a "moat" to prevent flooding; and more than 80 golf courses.

FALCON BEACH GC: At Falcon Lake in Whiteshell Provincial Park, 90 miles east of Winnipeg on the Trans-Canada Highway. SASKATCHEWAN

Land of the "big sky," Saskatchewan is the heart of Canada's wheat-growing industry. The province is intimately linked with the exploits of the North-West Mounted Police, or "Mounties," and many museums trace the history of the force. Buffalo graze in a fenced pasture beside the highway in the Wild Animal Park at Moose Jaw.

WASKESIEU LAKE GC: (pronounced Was-ki-soo): On the east shore of Waskesieu Lake in Prince Albert National Park. Lies 60 miles north of Prince Albert, via Highway 2. Most visitors are impressed by the beauty of this scenic 6,059-yard (par-70) course. The 625-yard eighth is known as Mae West because of the identical twin contoured hills guarding the entrance to the green.

Early-morning players are often startled to see deer or moose sharing the fairway with them. Green fees: $4 per day or $20 per week. Clubs and hand carts for rent.

ALBERTA

The Calgary Stampede, called "the greatest outdoor show on earth"; snowmobile rides on the vast Columbia Icefields; a breathtaking cable car ride up Mount Norquay; Banff Indian Days Celebration; the view from the top of the 626-foot Calgary Tower in Calgary:

The water supply for the fairways, tees and greens is obtained by means of a gravity system. At the ninth hole you drive straight for the 9,000-foot pinnacle of Pyramid Mountain. The green and bunkers of the ninth were originally shaped in the form of a huge, recumbent female, but objections were raised on the grounds that this design would put male golfers off their approaches, so the contours have been flattened out. But the hole retains its name—Cleopatra. Wild animals frequent the course. A bull moose once took over the water hole on the 10th fairway, and golfers had to shoot over him for two months. Sometimes bears squat on the benches and watch golfers tee off.

The park has 375 campsites at four locations, the main one in the townsite. Costs are $1.50 for unserviced sites and $2.50 for sites with water. There are good accommodations at the Kootenai Motel, Bayshore Motel, Crandell Lodge Motel, Emerald Bay Motel, Kilmory Motor Lodge, Lakeshore Chalets, Ponderosa Motel, Stanley Hotel and Cottages, Waterton Auto Bungalows and Wildflower Motel. Rates run from $5 single to $30 per day (suite) for four. The season gen-

There are many other good courses throughout the province, with a large number in the Calgary and Edmonton areas.

BRITISH COLUMBIA

Here is golf of every description—from the courses on Vancouver Island to the forested layouts of the Vancouver area itself (Capilano, Marine Drive, Point Grey), to Harrison Hot Springs. And all around is the towering grandeur of the Canadian Rockies.
