SPECIAL SECTION: BUILDING BLOCKS TO BIGGER MEMBERSHIPS

EDITORIAL INTRODUCTION

Pay as much as you play: the concept of Holly Tree CC attracted members through a unique pricing plan based on usage by Dan Foster.

Youth Programs: Insurance for the Future encouraging youth programs and adult incentive plans ensure clubs an involved future membership by Stephen W. Byers.

Country Club Life for Everyone through a great variety of economical plans, Heather Ridge CC is putting the "good life" within the reach of more people and profiting from it by Jerry Claussen.

ARTICLES

Pro's Par by Jean Conlon

The Professional Approach by Patrick D. Williams

Jimmy Jackson: Pro with a Purpose a grueling schedule doesn't keep this professional from getting involved in the community by Douglas Lutz

Special Report: The Deluge severe flooding has inundated many courses, but physical damage has been minimal, economically, it's another story: play is down and Poa annua is up by Joe Doan

Irrigation Tailored for Economy: the irrigation at Fountain Hills GC was custom-made to overcome specific terrain and soil problems to avoid future costly maintenance programs by Joe Doan

Poa Annua: To Encourage or Control? one of the country's leading agronomists puts this continuing, but important, controversy into perspective by Dr. James B. Beard

SPECIAL PRO SECTION

Two for the Money Vince Yanovitch's expertise as a professional has served him well as a convention salesman for Tamiment Resort and has helped boost pro shop sales by Vince Yanovitch

Follow the Profits: flexible interiors in the pro shop allow it to keep up with changing customer buying patterns, fashion and equipment trends by Dick Farley and Harry Obitz

The Profit Pro Shop by Chuck Cumming

DEPARTMENTS

Coming Events

News of the Industry

People in the News

VIEWPOINTS

Accent on Management by Ken Emerson

Turfgrass Research Review by Dr. James B. Beard

Swinging Around Golf by Herb Graffis

Grau's Answers to Turf Questions by Fred V. Grau

cover illustration by Liam Roberts