Again—
Just a lot of words meaning
Merry Christmas
to you, from
Golfdom’s Bunch

SANTA CLAUS common has weathered the storm, and the little children shall lead us back to a laugh. The youngster of a pal of ours, being told by his mother that Santa Claus lived all by himself up at the North Pole, asked the timely question, “hasn’t Santa Claus even got anybody to talk to about the market?”

When it gets so even the youngsters are worrying about the market, then it’s high time for us to declare a moratorium on moaning low about how we came out with a seven when the right point would have made us rich (mex.), and that’s what the market post-mortem amounts to for most of us.

Christmas is getting better every year. Our Christmas dinner the first year that GOLFDOM was in business was obtained by shooting the wolf that bayed at our door. There is a vast improvement certain for this year’s Christmas. To the fellows who made the improvement possible we wish a grand Christmas and a New Year that is 365 days straight down the fairway.

GOLFDOM’S readers have pulled for us right along with enthusiasm that has astonished other publishers who know a lot about the ordinary difficulties and delays of getting a magazine going strong. Our advertisers, may their tribe increase, have gone out of their way many times to help us, too.

We know we’re lucky to have a team like this on our side, and believe us when we send out to you all the regulation phrase “a very merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.” We mean it with all the earnestness that can come from the hearts of a bunch of poor boys from the country, trying to get along.

GOLFDOM’S Boys and Gals
