Hit the Hard Spots

with the AERIFIER*

The dry, hard spots on fairways are most in need of aerification. The Aerifier is designed to operate even on the hard areas. Open spoons enter the soil more easily. Sturdy, rigid construction forces spoons to penetrate all of the soil.

The Aerifier spoons do not glide over the surface of the hard spots. Rigid construction causes all of the spoons to go into the ground. The Aerifier does not miss the spots that most need aerifying. Sufficient extra weight can be added to the Aerifier to ensure spoon penetration all over. Durable ¾" or 1" diameter spoons can take this rigorous use.

Disc weights are available for the Aerifier. They are easy to mount on the Aerifier discs. The weights are made in sections for easy handling. Add as much weight as needed to bear down on the hard spots.

Thorough fairway cultivation demands a substantial implement. The Aerifier's sturdy rigid construction does the job. Penetrate the localized dry spots that are most in need of cultivation.

When you spend time aerifying, hit the hard spots, too.

Weathervane events, considerably fattened. Beverly Hanson, playing in the field's last 3-some of pros, won the initial lap by a stroke after Betty Jameson and Patty Berg had tied. Girls played 36 holes the final day. First time girls had gone two rounds in a day in a major tournament. Majority of final round girl pro scores were better than those of the morning round. Louise Suggs picked up $1500 as the winning maid in the member-pro finale of the Weathervane opening act for 1953. Second 36 holes of Weathervane will be played at Phoenix, Ariz., April 11-12 in connection with Women's Trans-Mississippi.

John and Lewis Serbin sponsored a women's open tournament at Bay Shore CC, Miami Beach, Fla., Feb. 6, 7 and 8 that drew biggest galleries of the year in the area. Cerebral Palsy fund was beneficiary. Betty Jameson led the field. Tournament finale was a fashion show of Serbin golf dresses which have become big sellers at pro shops and leading women's stores. Men pros who saw the finish of the tournament got some good merchandising education on how a fashion show of women's golf wear draws crowds.
