We just hope that everyone who is on the winning Four-Ball Championship team at The Dunes Golf & Beach Club, Myrtle Beach, S. C., and takes custody of the winning trophy isn’t a drinking man. This one would scare the hell out of a pink elephant. According to Jimmy D’Angelo, Dunes pro, there’s quite a story behind this trophy. An alligator was sent to the club from Colombia in South America. A. R. Stache, a taxidermist, mounted it on a piece of cypress that was found only after the Dunes management made an extensive search to locate exactly the piece it wanted. Then the mounted specimen was sent to the Keystone Silver Co. in Philadelphia for silvering. This firm was completely perplexed because it was thought impossible to silverplate leather. Keystone spent seven months consulting with 50 or so technicians and after weighing their advice, finally got the ‘gator encased in silver. Seems like it would have been so much simpler if the Dunes management had been willing to settle for just a plain old drinking cup style trophy in the first place.
