

THE COACH'S PERSPECTIVE ON FIELDS
Stan Parish, Offensive Coordinator
University of Michigan

- I. Introductory remarks
- II. Background on you
- III. Background and information on the fields you have experienced playing and coaching on
- IV. What practice field conditions mean to a coach
 - 1. preparing athletes
 - 2. evaluating athletes
- V. What field conditions mean to you as a coach on game fields
 - 1. game prep
 - 2. play calling during games in good and severe weather
 - 3. execution of plays during games
 - 4. evaluation of game film
- VI. What field conditions mean to players
 - 1. game prep
 - 2. during games
 - 3. post game evaluations
- VII. Grass vs. artificial
- VIII. The new artificial surfaces
- IX. Conclusion