“Information is a source of learning. But unless it is organized, processed, and available to the right people in a format for decision making, it is a burden, not a benefit.” — William Pollard

A Retrospective on Resources

The Sports Turf Manager, known as the Sports Turf Newsletter until 1995, has been published on an ongoing basis since 1997. It keeps sports turf professionals up to date with leading research, STA programs and activities, industry information and coming events.

Members of the Sports Turf Association and the greater turfgrass industry have access to complete back files of the publication through a partnership between the STA and Michigan State University's Turfgrass Information Center (TIC). The online digitized archive allows readers to browse year-by-year or search by word to retrieve PDF files of articles. Looking for information published in the Sports Turf Manager? Visit www.sportsturfassociation.com/Publications/Sports Turf Manager/Archive and begin your search!

Sports Turf Association members enjoy complete subscriber access to the TIC’s Turfgrass Information File, the most comprehensive publicly available collection of turfgrass educational materials in the world. Follow the Michael J. Bladon Educational Link to the Turfgrass Information File. Login at www.sportsturfassociation.com for access to the ‘Member's Only’ section of the website.

Establishing Turfgrass Without Herbicides: Musings on the Future

Dr. Ken Carey, Department of Plant Agriculture, University of Guelph

I t is a situation where some difficult challenges have been faced by the turfgrass industry, there are some promising solutions that may prove to be successful. As of yet, there are no easy answers, but the prospects are not as dim as many might think. As you know, and have perhaps anticipated, there have been some oversights in blending assessment with expectations. This article will explore some of the expectations.

In sports field assessment, help determine the goals of sports field assessment. There are many things that can be assessed. Generally, state the goals of the assessment. There are many factors that need to be considered, whether talking about managing businesses, facilities or sports fields. It is not performed with the correct intent. This article will explore some of the expectations.
