CLASS A and B MEMBERS --- Show support for your Association ---

Come and put the people you want in office.

PROPOSED BYLAW CHANGE to be voted upon to change the present Class E membership to Class F and form a new Class E classification to include all retired members who are not entitled to Class A Life. This would correspond with the GCSA of America bylaws.

Article II, Section 2. Class E Members-Retired Members. Any A, B, D, or F member reaching the age of 60 who is retired and no longer seeking employment within the scope of activities of any membership class of this Association may apply to the Board of Directors, in writing, for Class E membership. Dues for this classification shall be set by the Board of Directors. A retired member shall have all the privileges of this Association afforded the member in his immediate previous classification, with the exception of holding office

Class F Members To qualify for Class F an applicant must be engaged as follows: agronomists, extension specialists, park superintendents, and assistants in each category, and purveyors of all types of equipment and materials used for construction and maintenance of golf courses. Class F members shall have all the rights and privileges of the Association except that such members may not vote or hold office.
