

R E T I R I N G

Lee Meservy, one of Northern California's best superintendents, is retiring from the Ancil Hoffman Course, in Sacramento County. Lee is planning to retire in Grants Pass, Oregon where he will spend his time hunting, fishing and playing golf. He plans to come down to California occasionally to see his friends and invites those who come through Grants Pass to stop and visit.

Bill Hamilton 'the old billy goat' is very well known to many superintendents. He has been an inexhaustible source of technical information and has helped many of us solve tricky problems. Bill has to retire because of Pure Gro's ruling---but knowing Bill this will not stop him from coming around and helping people as he has done in the past.
