The "big lock thief" strikes again at Los Altos Country Club. About 45 days ago they started locking the gates leading to the fairways and all of a sudden the locks were disappearing. The theft got so frequent that they decided to have the locks welded to the chain. Now the chains are being cut and last count of stolen locks - 27! Members playing in the early evening got a surprise - after hitting the ball on to the green, they saw a youngster run to the green, pick up the ball, run out the gate, locking it and leaving players looking for another exit.
