

Golf Course Superintendents from Northern California who participated in the GCSA of America Management Seminar 1 on February 14-15, 1973 in Los Angeles are: Fernie Espinoza, Robert Ford, Mike Hathaway, Jack Jagur, Roger Larson, Robert Livesey and Clifford Wagoner. Others in attendance were from Southern California, Oregon, Alaska, Illinois, Colorado, Arizona, British Columbia, Utah and Washington.

This program was designed to acquaint the superintendent with present day club accounting, to familiarize him with the balance sheet, the income statement and related subjects. Strong emphases was put on budgeting, record keeping, and justification of capital expenditures.

The thirty superintendents who attended were unanimous in agreeing the two day one night session was worth the money they invested in their future.
