

ARE THERE ANY REAL SHORTAGES?

Today we read and hear so much about "shortages" the first thing we know we're completely brainwashed into believing it. Sure, we think first of all the material things that are short but let's look at the many plusses there are such as:

Loyalty - between manufacturer, distributor, customer, management, employee, etc. You can assemble all these things into a BIG PLUS.

Confidence - Faith in the salesman who serves you and the employee who repays you in kind with dependability, honesty and a sincere effort to fill his responsibility.

Sharing - Opportunities to share successes, exchange ideas and put them to work for mutual benefit.

Caring - Offering a helping hand to our fellow-man regardless of his station, his color and/or his creed. This is the American tradition and no one is going to break it down.

Faith - Trust in the basic honesty of men and a restoration of belief in the American Ideals that have survived these many crises in our History. True, there may be forces from time to time that would attempt to shatter our morale but renewing our Faith in the Eternal God will carry us through.

As we approach the NEW YEAR let us not forget our responsibilities to each other and make better use of the spiritual gifts that the Lord has placed within our grasp.
