A FEW COMMENTS ABOUT RETIREMENT by a recent retiree Blake Taylor

From my standpoint it's great. I recommend it to everyone. At least everyone who has enough income to live comfortably on.

Unless a person has extravagant tastes and wants to live "high off the hog" he can get by on considerably less income than he thinks he can. In my case with Social Security and my state pension due to my last superintendents position with the City of San Mateo, I have an adequate income to live comfortably on and even save a little. However, I strongly advise you superintendents, especially those within ten years of retirement, to put away everything you can in some kind of pension plan as Social Security will come no where near supporting your present style of living.

Medicare and an over 65 supplemental health insurance relieves one somewhat of the thought of being completely wiped out by some catastrophic illness or accident also.

As to working--I thought before retirement I would miss it. I haven't. Lying in bed another hour or two or even three has become an easy thing to get used to. And staying up for the late show if I desire to do so doesn't bring guilt feelings the next day for feeling less than "up to par." I also haven't missed the fungus attacks or the fertilizer burns or the loss of the "POA" during the heat spells. Also worm casts and weeds haven't caused me any loss of sleep lateley. That's retirement.

Keeping busy is no problem. Besides keeping up the house and yard, playing golf three days a week keeps me in reasonably good shape. And a three or four day trip now and then to Reno, Tahoe or Northern Calif...
