

KEN'S NOTES - Ken Sakai, Riverside Golf Course, Coyote

The July meeting at Rohnert Park was well attended. I can't emphasize enough that you send in your reservation cards. Sam had his course in great shape--too bad we couldn't get more of you out on the course. While you were up there I hope you had a chance to tour the new 18. It looks like a great layout--huge lakes, gigantic greens and tees; but best of all, wide fairways. Thanks again to Sam Singh and the Rohnert Park staff for their hospitality.

Due to rising costs (mailings, paper stock, printing, etc. the Board of Directors has voted to increase the yearly dues by $5.00 in all classes.

LINSAY JENNISON is now with BudSco Chemical Enterprises in Salinas.

BILL NIGH has resigned from Dixon Landing Golf Course. Congratulations to Bill on his recent marriage.

Congratulations to WALTER BOYSEN, Class A-Life member on his recent marriage too. Address changed to 383 Rockgreen Place, Santa Rosa 95405

Mail is being returned from TIMOTHY SNELL and AMBY MROZEK. Please tell them to contact the office with current addresses.

Ken Kajioka from Cal-Golf writes that anyone interested in applying for Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent spots in the Southern California area should please contact him. KEN KAJIOKA, 12421 Patricia Dr. Cerritos, CA 90701 213 865-7104

Who is JERRY GORDON and does he always know BEST?

Oh, you'll be able to always recognize your Board because they will be wearing the Green Blazers at all meetings. I think I'm a 39 medium, if anyone has one I can borrow.

That's it for now - See you soon.

Ken
