LEONARD WALSH

KAZ MASEBA - STOCKTON COUNTRY CLUB, STOCKTON

Kaz was in the landscape maintenance business from 1950 to 1962. In 1962 he went to work at the Stockton Country Club as Assistant Superintendent. In 1964 he was appointed Superintendent. During the past 15½ years Kaz has done many major things to improve the golf course. He has rebuilt 11 of the 18 greens, installed an automatic irrigation system which allows him to water the complete course in 9 hours. At the present time he is in the process of installing concrete cart paths throughout the course.

Kaz is a Class A member of GCSA of Northern California and GCSA of America. He has served two terms as director of our Chapter. Kaz and his lovely wife Yo live in French Camp.

LEONARD WALSH - BOULDER CREEK GOLF COURSE, BOULDER CREEK

Leonard started his golf course career on the construction of the Riverside Golf Course at Coyote in 1957 and was there until 1959. Then he moved to the construction site of Bay Meadows at San Mateo. In 1963 Leonard moved as Superintendent to Boulder Creek Golf Course which was only a 9 hole course. He constructed the second nine in 1965.

Leonard has been a board member of GCSA of Northern California off and on since 1968. He is a member of GCSA of America. Leonard, his wife Virginia and 4 children live on the golf course at Boulder Creek.
