

OUR HOST SUPERINTENDENT - STEPHEN CARLTON - SAN JOSE CC

Steve got his start in golf maintenance as greenkeeper at Pebble Beach in 1971. In 1973 he moved to Almaden Golf & Country Club as Assistant Superintendent. In late 1974 the opportunity for his first Superintendent's position came when he took the job at Carmel Valley Golf & Country Club.

In 1977, Steve took on the job as Golf Course Consultant at the Belle Terre Country Club, LaPlace, Louisiana. Then back to California to Pomona National Golf Club as Superintendent. In September of 1978 he went to Los Coyotes Country Club, Buena Park, California as consultant. Then it was back to Northern California where he accepted his present position at San Jose Country Club.

Steve is a San Francisco native. He received his B.S. Degree in Agronomy from U. C. Davis in 1968. He did graduate work in Horticulture and Turf Management at Davis in 1972. He now resides in San Jose, California.