

Our meeting at Boulder Creek brought out some new faces and it was attended by 90 people.

The program put on by Jerry Gordon of Best Fertilizers was very enlightening.

Jack Baker has served the golf course superintendents through H. V. Carter Company for 50 years. He was honored by a plaque and an Honorary membership. Now Jack, maybe you will have time to write a regular column for "Thru the Green".

The golf course was superb; and the barbeque was fantastic. Thanks, Leonard.

A good time was had by all.

Rodney Kilcoyne, Diablo Creek Golf & CC is building a new maintenance shop. Expects it to be 2,200 square feet with office space. In fact his telephone is outside on a post, waiting for its new home. Also he has further news for us next issue about hydraulic oil dyes from Kodak Co.

Sohan Singh, Diablo CC, Diablo, has a new shop with office, size 40 x 80 plus his storage building 26 x 100 "Lucky Guy". New project include new lake between his 4 and 5 hole - size 37,000 square feet x 6' deep. Also includes extensive drainage system. He is using the spoils from the lake area for additional mounds, etc. on the course.

SUPERINTENDENT-PROFESSIONAL TOURNEY, NOVEMBER 10th at Castlewood CC, Pleasanton will be played under established handicaps. Superintendents be sure you get your handicap so that you will be able to play with your professional, green chairman, president etc.

Intern program is still looking for sponsoring clubs. Contact Cliff Wagoner 209 545-0723 Work 523-7141 Home

Our Deepest Sympathy

Paul F. Lloyd, Watsonville passed away on Wednesday, June 18th. He has been a member of GCSA of Northern California for eleven years and had served as superintendent of Pajaro Valley Golf Course since 1967. He leaves his wife Frances and two sons Larry of Rancho Canada Golf Course, Carmel and Paul C. of Aptos Seascap Golf Course, Aptos, members of GCSANC.

Pajaro Valley is holding a "Paul Lloyd Golf Benefit" on July 11th with all proceeds going to the Lloyd family. GCSA of Northern California is sending a 4 man team. Any one wishing to contribute may make checks payable to the "Paul Lloyd Golf Benefit" fund and send to Pajaro Valley Golf Course, 967 Salinas Road, Watsonville 95076, Attention: Gary Cursio.

REMEMBER The Golf Course Superintendents Association of Northern California August meeting is being cancelled so that our members can participate in the California Golf Course Superintendents Association annual meeting. Let's have a good representation from Northern California -- See you there.
