

loaned money and even worked on tractors on the course; others did janitorial services; wives served lunches to golfers.

In 1944 things began to pick up. The membership increased over the next few years until it reached its present closed membership of 400. Facilities were enlarged and improved, so they now include a new Golf Pro Shop, new Tennis Shop and Tennis Courts, modern swimming pools, and an automatic sprinkling system on the Golf Course. The Clubhouse also has been "added to" and modernized since the war years.
