At the membership meeting members will select a new president, vice president and two directors from a slate of candidates.

James A. Wyllie, CGCS, Superintendent at Bayview Country Club Limited, Thornhill, Ontario, Canada has been nominated for 1982 GCSAA President.

Robert W. Osterman, CGCS, Superintendent of the Connecticut Golf Club, (formerly the Golf Club at Aspetuck) Easton, Connecticut, and James W. Timmerman, CGCS Superintendent at Orchard Lake Country Club, Orchard Lake, Michigan have been nominated for Vice President

Five candidates, including one incumbent, will vie for two seats on GCSAA's board of directors. They are Paul Boizelle, CGCS, Superintendent at Onwentsia Club, Lake Forest, Illinois; William J. Emerson, Superintendent Chevy Chase Club, Chevy Chase, Maryland; John P. Hayden, CGCS, Superintendent of San Jose Country Club, Jacksonville, Florida; James E. Lindblad, CGCS, Superintendent of Wavzata Country Club, Wayzata, Minnesota; and Richard V. Slivinski, CGCS, Superintendent of Golf Courses for the City of Phoenix, Arizona.

"Managing Change, with GCSAA at the Helm" is the theme of the Conference being held in New Orleans' Rivergate Exhibition Center and the New Orleans Hilton. Other activities include a Turfgrass Trade Show, educational sessions and 2 symposiums which will explore the nation's water situation as it relates to the future of the game of golf.

The Conference opening session will feature a keynote address by golf commentator Jim McKay, host of ABC's "Wide World of Sports."

Four Distinguished Service Awards will be presented at the opening session. The Distinguished Service Award, GCSAA's highest honor, recognizes outstanding service to the golf course superintendent and his profession. Receiving two of the four awards will be superintendents Sherwood A. Moore, CGCS, and Milton Bauman, CGCS. The other two awards will go to agronomist Alexander M. Radko, national director of the USGA Green Section, and to turfgrass nurseryman Ben Warren.

Sherwood Moore has been a golf course superintendent since 1939 and is the superintendent of Winged Foot Golf Club in Mamaroneck, N.Y. He is a Quarter Century member of GCSAA, serving as its president in 1962.

Milton Bauman, superintendent of the Seattle Golf Club, was a founder of the Northwest Turfgrass Association. He pioneered work with sulfur in controlling soil pH and inhibiting Poa annua growth.

Alexander Radko has served the superintendent, the game of golf and the turfgrass industry for more than 33 years as research assistant, agronomist, eastern regional director and national director of the USGA Green Section.

Ben Warren, who retired in 1980, founded Warren's Turf Nurseries in 1928. It grew to become what is possibly the largest turfgrass nursery in the world. Warren's turf is grown and sold in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, New York, California and Ohio, and Warren's A-34 bluegrass turf is grown in France, England, Australia, Sweden and South Africa.
