

NAUMANN'A NORCAL NEWS by Don Naumann

John Winskowicz recently was named superintendent at Lew Galbraith Golf Course in Oakland. John was the Assistant prior to the promotion.

Terry Stratton is the acting Superintendent at Contra Costa Country Club in Pleasant Hill

O B Sports recently was awarded a total lease contract with Incline Village for both golf courses. They will be officially taking over on March 1st.

Olympic Club has just begun installation on a new automatic irrigation system. John Fleming says this will be about a 20 month project. He also just hired John Jacobson to work on the project.

Bob Livesey, CGCS is in charge of Oak Patch Golf Course in Visalia.

*****

PROFESSIONAL TURF AND LANDSCAPE MANAGERS HORTICULTURAL SYMPOSIUM

The Butte County Farm Advisors Office is presenting a one-day educational program that is designed for anyone involved in professional turf and landscape management.

Time will be allowed for specific questions, and you are welcome to bring plant specimens for diagnosis.

Contact Carl M. Wick, Joseph H. Connell, Farm Advisors at the University of California Cooperative Extension Butte County Farm advisors Office, 2279 Del Oro Ave., Suite B Oroville, CA 95965 Telephone 916 534-4201

3 hours Classroom Pest Control Advisors Continuing Education Credit C-2-83

FRIDAY, MARCH 4, 1983 - 9:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at Durham Memorial Hall, Faber & Midway, Durham, California

Topics include Ferlizer Use in the Landscape - What's in the Bag?
Weeds in the Landscape and Their Control - Pocket Gopher Problems and Methods of Control - Seasonal Water Requirements - Insect Pest Management and Product Selection - Diagnosis of Disease Problems in Landscape Horticulture - Trees in the Landscape - Selection, Maintenance, Care - Establishing New Lawns and Use of Soil Amendments - Managing Established Turf to Avoid Problems

