

NAUMANN'N NORCAL NEWS by Don Naumann

JOHN LLOYD, Superintendent at Marina Golf Course, recently finished construction of 13 holes at his golf course. June 7th is a grand opening of a new 9 holes, the additional 4 holes will be added to the old eight to make a championship 27 holes.

LOU POHLSSEN is back out of the hospital after having heart surgery.

IN MEMORIUM - Ray Talbot, Superintendent of Golf and Parks, City of Napa.

GOLF REPORT by Mike Clark, Golf Chairman

At our next meeting I expect a large turnout for our golf event. It will be a 1:00 shotgun at Aptos Seascap Golf Course. REMEMBER to include the names of the people you would like to play with, on your reservation card. The golf professional will do his best to accommodate your requests for specific foursomes. Your own handicap or the word "calloway" should also be on your reservation card.

If you plan to play golf you must attend the meeting and the luncheon. MEMBERS NOT SIGNED IN BY THE START OF LUNCH WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO PLAY GOLF.

Our golf events are run under the U.S.G.A. rules of golf unless otherwise amended by local rules. We will be checking your N.C.G.A. handicap card this month, so have it brought up to date and with you at Aptos.
