

Naumann's Norcal News - by Don Naumann

Howard Fisher, after living all his life in Calistoga and spending over 20 years at Mt. St. Helena Golf Course, has decided to move to Bishop and be the Superintendent at Bishop Golf Course. Bishop is an 18 hole course with a home on the site for Howard.

Becky Naumann is leaving El Camino Crop Supply to work for Nurseryman's Exchange in San Francisco. Becky was the office manager and coordinated all deliveries.

Becky DeMoss is the new Superintendent at Tularcitos Golf Course in Milpitas. She is replacing Dan Bruinsma who has moved on to another profession. Becky was the Superintendent at Spring Valley Golf Course also in Milpitas.

Mulkh Raj recently completed building a new 1st tee at Springtown Golf Course in Livermore. The new tee is an island in the middle of a lake that is easily seen while driving onto the property. The tee should be ready for play by Thanksgiving.

Joe Rodriquez at Rossmoor Golf Course in Walnut Creek is busy trying to rebuild after winter damage. Since we played there in June, the hill behind the third green slid onto the green. As a result the main lines were off for over two weeks. Manual watering was used on the greens thanks to the use of a water truck. Joe is also involved in other projects on the grounds which include the building of new bunkers on #6 and #15 greens, and removing and rebuilding of 3 bowling greens of 10,000 sq. ft.

Clifford Rourke is now the Superintendent at Franklin Canyon Golf Course in Rodeo. He was previously at Davis Golf Club.

E.M. "Doc" Willey recently retired from the Bishop Golf Course. He was a member of the association since 1972, was at Bishop since 1974 and attended 4 of the Assilomar Institutes.
