COOPERATIVE EXTENSION IN ALAMEDA COUNTY

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

PLEASE POST

YOU ARE INVITED

PLEASE POST

TURF AND LANDSCAPE FIELD DAY - Sponsored by the University of California Cooperative Extension

WHEN: Thursday, July 18, 1985, 8:30 a.m. to noon.

WHERE: University of California Deciduous Fruit Field Station 125 North Winchester Boulevard, San Jose

PARK ACROSS
FROM STATION

Stevens Creek
Boulevard---->
Valley Fair Shopping
Center > Oakland
Freeway 17

COST: No registration or fees. Lunch can be purchased in the area.

YOU WILL SEE:

TURF

- --Performance of 47 perennial ryegrass cultivars under study as part of a National Variety Evaluation.
- --Performance of seashore paspalum 'adalayd' ('EXCALIBRE') as affected by herbicides.
- --The effect of winter overseeding with various cool season grasses on summer performance of Bermudagrass.
- -- The growth performance of nine low maintenance grasses.
- --Performance of tall fescue/clover mixes as low maintenance turf.
- --Performance of 25 fine-leaved turf-type tall fescue cultivars.
- -- Performance of 4 range grasses under low maintenance for turf purposes.
- --Performance of 45 fine fescues under study as a part of a National Variety Evaluation program.
- -- Herbicide screening for Poa control in dichondra.
- --Allelopathic effects of 3 cool season grasses on crabgrass control.

LANDSCAPE

- --Weed control in planting basins
- -- Fuchsia mite control trial
- -- Algerian and English ivy edgegrowth control plots
- -- Bermudagrass control in junipers
- -- Bamboo control plots
- -- Powdery mildew resistance of Sycamore varieties

PCA CREDIT: 3 hours have been applied for.

For more information call:

Ali Harivandi Turf, Soil and Water Advisor (415) 881-6341 Larry Costello Horticulture Advisor (415) 726-9059