HOST SUPERINTENDENT

SOHAN SINGH worked under Obie M. Noonkester at El Macero CC in Davis, California from 1963-1968. In December 1968, he moved to Sequoyah CC where he was assistant to Walter Boysen and Gunmil Sandhu. In January 1972, he got his first Superintendent's job at Diablo CC.

Many steps have been taken to improve the drainage in adobe soil, and with the help of architect Bob Graves and Algie Pulley, 24 bunkers and four lakes have been added. In addition, the 7th and 13th greens have been enlarged, many trees have been planted, and new tees and mounds constructed. In 1974 a Toro sprinkler system was installed and a new maintenance building was added in 1980.

DIABLO COUNTRY CLUB was established as a golf and country club in 1917. It is still one of the most historic and beautiful country clubs in No. California, set in a charming, natural atmosphere, and popular for that reason.

The club facilities include historic chalets and an old clubhouse, which will be remodeled in January 1987 at a cost of almost 4 million dollars. The 127.8 acre, course designed by Jack Neville, is nestled among the foothills at the base of 3,849 ft. Mt. Diablo. The General Manager of Diablo Country Club is Paul R. MacDonald.

* DIRECTIONS: Located off Hwy. 680, between Walnut Creek and San Ramon. Take the EL CERRO exit from 680, drive 2.2 miles east. Left on Alameda-Diablo and left again onto Clubhouse Road.
